

From: Mark
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/25/02 11:28am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I used to support Microsoft until they came out with the licensing for the Xp products. The company is clearly out of control. The settlement should open up the source code for the operating system, loosen the license, and encourage competitive products like WINE on Linux that will also run software designed for windows.